THE CHASTENING ROD. BW-JOHN E. DAY.

The night is blackest when we're mourning Though the stars may ablue just the same And the winds may be whistling as bleakly When all is quiet on the billowy main.

But day finally breaks through the darkness, As the sun smiles out in the rain; Just as mingled sorrow and gladness Are twin sisters of Joy and Pain. While anguish of life follows anguish, And troubles never come alone, The rod that always is chastening Falls on those who are nearest the Throne Wheeling, April 9, 1888.

WEST VIRGINIA POLITICS.

Col. R. H. Freer has a boom for Congress in the Fourth district. Webster county Republicans organ-ized for the campaign last week.

Col. John M. Rowan, of Monroe, Speaker of the last House of Delegates, is a candidate for State Treasurer. According to the State Journal, the Parkersburg Democracy appear to have gone back on the Jacksons and are now for the rival house.

The Ritchfe Gazette intimates that Col. Bob McEldowney, of the Wetzel Democrat, is after the Circuit Judgeship now held by Judge Stealey.

The Wheeling INTELLIGENCER is opposed to the adoption of the prohibition amendment, but seems to be fair. The Wheeling Register is opposed to the adoption of the amendment.—Ritchie Gazette.

The Parkersburg Republicans did themselves proud on Tuesday, carrying every ward in the city by handsome majorities. The ex-Senator is right when he expresses a fear that the Democracy cannot carry Wood county this year.—

Wetzel Vounter.

Trusts? Oh, yes; the Cleveland trust. Biggest scheme of the kind ever organized. Over one hundred thousand officeholders in it. But we notice two or three States that won't join the combine, and among them are West Virginia and Indiana.—St. Mary's American.

The American is the name of a new true blue, straight cut Republican newspaper, the first number of which is on the INTELLIGENCEN'S exchange table. It is a handsomely printed sheet, ably edited by R. L. Pemberton and J. A. Oldfield, and is altogether a credit to Pleasants county and the Republican Ex-Senator Camden says he will not consider the proffer of the Democratic nomination for Governor unless it is manimous and spontaneous. As the nomination will not come to him unanmously and spontaneously, the ex-Sentor will not be the Democratic nom-nee.—Charleston Tribune.

The prohibition war still rages. If we

The prohibition war still rages. If we can get the voters to see that their inter-ests are in the amendment, and not in the Third party ticket, the event is cer-tain victory. If sore-headed politicians can get the voters to hang their hopes on them, away goes the amendment, hopes and all.—Wyoming News.

It is not surprising that there is a surplus in the treasury. In order to gain a reputation for economy small appropriation bills are passed and the country suffers. The party which is not willing to sustain those in its ranks who adhere to principle and do right, should be annihilated. If Senator J. B. A special says: The contest for the nomination for Sheriff of Wood county is waxing warm already. The Republican candidates are J. L. Buckley, Arthur an candidates are J. L. Buckley, Arthur B. Beckwith, J. P. McMechen and William Woodyard. The Democratic fight is among "Legal Tender" Al. Zilenziger, A. A. Kellar and Levi Staffuns, jr., with the chances in favor of Kellar. For Circuit Judge the Republicans will almost certainly nominate Governor Boreman, and just as surely will elect him. The Democratic nominee will be J. G. McCluer, the present Prosecuting Attorney. For Prosecuting Attorney. For Prosecuting Attorney. R. Heber Smith is said to stand the best show for the Democratic nomination. On the other side C. T. Caldwell and J. W. Vandervort have the lead. Judge Okey Johnson will be a candidate for re-election to the Court of Appeals.

EPPS'S COCOA

Breakfast.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws "By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected Occo. Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast-tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.
